

Keith Cartwright graduated from Ohio State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. After college, he immediately went to work for Eckerd Youth Alternatives, a residential wilderness program serving at-risk youth. He spent 13 years there, and has been devoted to human services ever since. Keith currently serves as the Adverse Childhood Experiences Coordinator for the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services. He also serves as the Alcohol and Drug Education Coordinator at Randolph-Macon College in Ashland, Virginia. In his free time Keith is an avid hiker, and loves spending time with his 15 and 17 year old sons, Ian and Elliott.
