

Megan Sullivan started her passion for volleyball in 7th grade during her school's first year of the program. She continued on to play all through middle school and high school. Megan played Rec League volleyball for the city of New Bern for two years and club volleyball for TRVC for three years. After high school, Megan attended the University of Mount Olive where she received a B.S. in Exercise Science and a minor in Coaching. While at UMO, she was the Men's and Women's Volleyball Team Manager for four years and played on the JV Basketball Team. Megan went back to New Bern after graduation and coached her old JV/ Varsity teams for two years. Megan got married and moved out to California where she helped start volleyball at the 29 Palms Base for both Youth and Adult Leagues.

If Megan isn't near a volleyball court, she enjoys baking and her two golden retrievers. She believes that volleyball is for everyone no matter what level they can play at and loves to share her passion of the sport with others.
